- | | | |
|--|----|-----------------------|
| 1. Industries Minister, Himachal Pradesh | .. | Chairman |
| 2. Managing Director, Himachal Pradesh Financial Corporation | .. | Member |
| 3. Shri Sat Pal Gupta, Kangra | .. | Member |
| 4. Shri Khem Chand, Advocate, Kulu | .. | Member |
| 5. Shri Amar Nath Bazwaria, Simla | .. | Member |
| 6. Shri Kewal Singh, M.L.A. | .. | Member |
| 7. Shri Mehnga Singh, M.L.A. | .. | Member |
| 8. Shri Krishan Datt, M.L.A. | .. | Member |
| 9. Director of Industries, Himachal Pradesh | .. | Ex-officio-Secretary. |

2. The non-official members would be entitled to travelling allowance in respect of the journeys performed in connection with the affairs of the Committee as under:—

(a) TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE

(i) Journey by rail.—They will be treated at par with Government servants for the First Grade and will be entitled to a single fare for the class of the accommodation actually used, but not exceeding the fare to which the Government servants of the First Grade are normally entitled, i.e. accommodation of the highest class, by whatever name it may be called, provided on the railway by which the journey is performed excluding Air-conditioned, plus an allowance for incidental expenses vide S. R. 36 restricted to one daily allowance at the ordinary rates given under S. R. 51 for every 24 hours of the railway journey or part thereof.

(ii) Journey by road.—In respect of the journey by road between places not connected by rail, a Member will be entitled to road mileage admissible to an Officer of the First Grade under the rules and at the rates as applicable to the employees of the Himachal Pradesh Government.

In a case where journey between the two places connected by rail is performed by road, rail being the ordinary mode of travelling, the road mileage will be regulated as under:—

- (1) When journey is performed by taking a single seat in public conveyance, he will be entitled to actual fare paid for a seat in a public conveyance plus incidentals, admissible as for journey by rail or the lower rate of road mileage limited to rail mileage, whichever is less.

- (2) When the journey is performed otherwise, the higher rate to road mileage, but limited to rail mileage, will apply.

Note.—Non-official members, who are also members of the Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to mileage at the same rate and on the same condition as are applicable to them as Members Vidhan Sabha to attend the Session.

(b) DAILY ALLOWANCE

(i) The non-official members other than the members of Himachal Pradesh Vidhan Sabha, will be entitled to daily allowance for each day of the meeting at the highest rate as admissible to a Government servant of the first grade for the respective locality.

(ii) The members of the Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to a daily allowance for each day of the meeting at the same rate and on the same condition as are applicable to them as Member of the Vidhan Sabha to attend the Session.

(iii) In addition to the daily allowance for the day(s) of the meeting, a member shall also be entitled to daily allowance for halt on tour at an out station in connection with the affairs of the Committee as under:—

- | | | |
|--|----|--|
| I. Halt upto six hours | .. | Nil. |
| II. Halt exceeding six hours | .. | Half daily allowance. |
| III. Halt exceeding twelve hours but not exceeding twenty four hours | .. | Full daily allowance. |
| IV. Halt exceeding twenty four hours | .. | One daily allowance for every 24 hours of halt or fraction of 24 hours at the end of half daily allowance will be calculated as indicated above. |

(iv) Daily allowance will be subject to the usual conditions laid down in the Supplementary Rule 73, as amended from time to time.

(c) CONVEYANCE ALLOWANCE

Non-official member, resident at a place where the meeting of the Committee is held will not be entitled to travelling and daily allowances on the scales indicated above, but will be allowed only the actual cost of conveyance hire, subject to a maximum of Rs. 10 per day. Before the claim is actually paid the Controlling Officer should verify the claim and satisfy himself after obtaining such details as may be considered necessary, that the actual expenditure was not less than the amount claimed. In case, he is not satisfied with the details, he may, at his discretion, limit the conveyance allowance to road mileage.

If such a Member uses his own car, he will be granted mileage allowance at the rates admissible to officials of the First Grade subject to a maximum of Rs. 10 per day.

(d) The travelling and daily allowances will be admissible to a member on production of a certificate by him to the effect that he has not drawn any travelling or daily allowance for the same journey and halts from any other Government source.

(e) The non-official members will be eligible for travelling allowance for the journeys actually performed in connection with the meetings of the Committee from and to the place of their permanent residence to be named in advance. If any member performs a journey from a place other than the place of his permanent residence, after the termination of the meeting, travelling allowance shall be worked out on the basis of distance actually travelled or the distance between the place of permanent residence and the venue of the meeting, whichever is less.

(f) The non-official members who are members of the Vidhan Sabha, will not be entitled to daily allowance in connection with their assignment, when the Vidhan Sabha or the Vidhan Sabha Committee on which they are serving is in session, as they will be drawing their daily allowances under the Salaries and Allowances of Members of the Legislative Assembly (Himachal Pradesh) Act, 1971 from the Vidhan Sabha. However, if they certify that they were prevented from attending the session of the House or the Vidhan Sabha Committee and did not draw any daily allowance from the Vidhan Sabha, they would be entitled to daily allowance at the rate as admissible to the Members Legislative Assembly.

(g) The provisions of Rule 4.17 and 6.1 of Himachal Pradesh Treasury Rules will apply mutatis mutandis in the case of over-payments made on account of travelling Allowance and dearness allowance to non-official members of the Committee.

(h) The members of the Vidhan Sabha will also not draw travelling and daily allowances including conveyance allowance, which will disqualify them from the Vidhan Sabha.

3. The Director of Industries, Himachal Pradesh, will be the Controlling Officer in regard to the counter-signing the travelling allowance bills of the non-official members.

4. The expenditure is debitable to head "35—Industries-B-1(5)—Admn. Staff-B-1(5)(3)—Allowances and Honoraria-Non-Plan".

5. This issues with the concurrence of the Finance Department obtained vide their Dy. No. 1929, dated the 20th July, 1973.

By order,
P. K. MATTOO,
Commissioner and Secretary.

THE RULERS OF INDIAN STATES (ABOLITION OF PRIVILEGES) ACT, 1972
(Act No. 54 of 1972)

AN

furthor to amend certain enactments consequent on derecognition of Rulers of Indian States and abolition of privy purses, so as to abolish the privileges of Rulers and to make certain transitional provisions to enable the said Rulers to adjust progressively to the changed circumstances.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Rulers of Indian States (Abolition of Privileges) Act, 1972.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, it shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of Act 5 of 1898.—In section 197A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898,—

- (a) in sub-section (1), for clause (b), the following clauses shall be substituted, namely:—
- (b) “commencement of the Constitution” means the 26th day of January, 1950; and
- (c) “Ruler” in relation to a former Indian State, has the same meaning as in article 363 of the Constitution;.
- (b) in sub-section (2), after the words “Ruler of a former Indian State”, the words “before the commencement of the Constitution” shall be inserted;
- (c) in sub-section (3), after the words “Ruler of a former Indian State”, the words “for such offence” shall be inserted.

3. Amendment of Act 5 of 1908.—In section 87B of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908,—

- (a) for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—
- “(1) In the case of any suit by or against the Ruler of any former Indian State which is based wholly or in part upon a cause of action which arose before the commencement of the Constitution or any proceeding arising out of such suit, the provisions of section 85 and sub-sections (1) and (3) of section 86 shall apply in relation to such Ruler as they apply in relation to the Ruler of a foreign State.”;
- (b) in sub-section (2),—
- (i) the word “and” at the end of clause (a) shall be omitted;
- (ii) for clause (b), the following clauses shall be substituted, namely:—
- (b) “commencement of the Constitution” means the 26th day of January, 1950; and
- (c) “Ruler”, in relation to a former Indian State, has the same meaning as in article 363 of the Constitution”.

4. Amendment of Act 43 of 1951.—Section 168 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, shall be omitted.

5. Amendment of Act 27 of 1957.—In the Wealth-tax Act, 1957, in section 5, in sub-section (1),—

- (a) in clause (iii), for the words “any one building in the occupation of a Ruler declared by the Central Government as his official residence”, the words, brackets and figures “any one building in the occupation of a Ruler, being a building which immediately before the commencement of the Constitution (Twenty-sixth Amendment) Act, 1971, was his official residence by virtue of a declaration by the Central Government” shall be substituted with effect from the 28th day of December, 1971;
- (b) to clause (xiv), the following provisos shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that in the case of jewellery recognised by the Central Government as aforesaid, such recognition shall be subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (i) that the jewellery shall be permanently kept in India and shall not be removed outside India except for a purpose and period approved by the Board;

(ii) that reasonable steps shall be taken for keeping the jewellery substantially in its original shape;

(iii) that reasonable facilities shall be allowed to any officer of Government authorised by the Board in this behalf to examine the jewellery as and when necessary; and

(iv) that if any of the conditions hereinbefore specified is not being duly fulfilled, the Board may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, withdraw the recognition retrospectively with effect from the date of commencement of clause (b) of section 5 of the Rulers of Indian States (Abolition of Privileges) Act, 1972 and in such a case, wealth-tax shall become payable by the Ruler for all the assessment years after such commencement for which the jewellery was exempted on account of the recognition.

Explanation.—For the purposes of clause (iv) of the foregoing proviso, the fair market value of any jewellery on the date of the withdrawal of the recognition in respect thereof shall be deemed to be the fair market value of such jewellery on each successive valuation date relevant for the assessment years referred to in the said proviso:

Provided further that the aggregate amount of wealth-tax payable in respect of any jewellery under clause (iv) of the foregoing proviso for all the assessment years referred to therein shall not in any case exceed fifty per cent of its fair market value on the valuation date relevant for the assessment year in which recognition was withdrawn;.”

6. Amendment of Act 18 of 1958.—In section 5 of the Gift-tax Act, 1958, in sub-section (1), clause (xvi) shall be omitted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1973.

7. Amendment of Act 43 of 1961.—In the Income-tax Act, 1961,—

- (a) in section 10,—

THE MINES AND MINERALS (REGULATION AND DEVELOPMENT) AMENDMENT ACT, 1972

(ACT. NO. 56 OF 1972)

to further amend the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Act, 1957.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Amendment Act, 1972.

2. Insertion of new section 4A.—In the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Act, 1957 (67 of 1957), (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), after section 4, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

the State Government, is of opinion that it is expedient in the interest of regulation of mines and mineral development so to do, it may request the State Government to make a premature termination of a mining lease in respect of any mineral, other than a minor mineral, and, on receipt of such request, the State Government shall make an order making a premature termination of such mining lease and granting a fresh mining lease in favour of such Government company or corporation owned or controlled by Government as it may think fit.

- (2) Where the State Government, after consultation with the Central Government, is of opinion that it is expedient in the interest of regulation of mines and mineral development so to do, it may, by any order, make premature termination of a mining lease in respect of any minor mineral and grant a fresh lease in respect of such mineral in favour of such Government company or corporation owned or controlled by Government as it may think fit."

3. Amendment of section 6.—In section 6 of the principal Act,—

- (i) for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

(1) No person shall acquire in any one State in respect of any mineral or prescribed group of associated minerals—

- (a) one or more prospecting licences covering a total area of more than twenty-five square kilometres; or
(b) one or more mining leases covering a total area of more than ten square kilometres:

Provided that if the Central Government is of opinion that in the interests of the development of any mineral, it is necessary so to do, it may, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, permit any person to acquire one or more prospecting licences or mining leases covering an area in excess of the aforesaid total area;

- (c) any mining lease or prospecting licence in respect of an area which is not compact or contiguous:

Provided that if the Central Government is of opinion that in the interests of the development of any mineral, it is necessary so to do, it may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, permit any person to acquire a prospecting licence or mining lease in relation to any area which is not compact or contiguous."

- (ii) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(3) For the purposes of determining the total area referred to in sub-section (1), the area held under a prospecting licence or mining lease by a person as a member of a co-operative society, company or other corporation, or a Hindu undivided family or a partner of a firm, shall be deducted from the area referred to in sub-section (1) so that the sum total of the area held by such person, under a prospecting licence or mining lease, whether as such member or partner, or individually, may not, in any case, exceed the total area specified in sub-section (1)."

4. Amendment of section 9.—In section 9 of the principal Act,—

- (i) in sub-sections (1) and (2), for the words "mineral removed by him", wherever they occur, the words "mineral removed or consumed by him or by his agent, manager, employee, contractor or sub-lessee" shall be substituted;

- (ii) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2A) The holder of a mining lease, whether granted before or after the commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Amendment Act, 1972, shall not be liable to pay any royalty in respect of any coal consumed by a workman engaged in a colliery provided that such consumption by the workman does not exceed one-third of a tonne per month."

- (iii) in sub-section (3), for the proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

"Provided that the Central Government shall not enhance the rate of royalty in respect of any mineral more than once during any period of four years."

5. Insertion of new section 9A.—After section 9 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"9A. Dead rent to be paid by the lessee.—(1) The holder of a mining lease, whether granted before or after the commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Amendment Act, 1972, shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the instrument of lease or in any other law for the time being in force, pay to the State Government, every year, dead rent at such rate as may be specified, for the time being, in the Third Schedule, for all the areas included in the instrument of lease:

Provided that where the holder of such mining lease becomes liable, under section 9, to pay royalty for any mineral removed or consumed by him or by his agent, manager, employee, contractor or sub-lessee from the leased area, he shall be liable to pay either such royalty or the dead rent in respect of that area, whichever is greater.

- (2) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, amend the Third Schedule so as to enhance or reduce the rate at which the dead rent shall be payable in respect of any area covered by a mining lease and such enhancement or reduction shall take effect from such date as may be specified in the notification:

Provided that the Central Government shall not enhance the rate of the dead rent in respect of any such area more than once during any period of four years."

6. Insertion of new section 13A.—After section 13 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"13A Power of Central Government to make rules for the grant of prospecting licences or mining leases in respect of territorial waters or continental shelf of India.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for the grant of prospecting licences or mining leases in respect of any minerals underlying the ocean within the territorial waters or the continental shelf of India.

- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—
- (a) the conditions, limitations and restrictions subject to which such prospecting licences or mining leases may be granted;
 - (b) regulation of exploration and exploitation of minerals within the territorial waters or the continental shelf of India;
 - (c) ensuring that such exploration or exploitation does not interfere with navigation; and
 - (d) any other matter which is required to be, or may be, prescribed."

7. Amendment of section 14.—In section 14 of the principal Act, for the words "prospecting licences and mining leases", the words "quarry leases, mining leases or other mineral concessions" shall be substituted.

8. Amendment of section 15.—In section 15 of the principal Act,—

- (i) in sub-sections (1) and (2), for the words "prospecting licences and mining leases", wherever they occur, the words "quarry leases, mining leases or other mineral concessions", shall be substituted;
- (ii) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted and shall be deemed always to have been inserted, namely:—
- (3) The holder of a mining lease or any other mineral concession granted under any rule made under sub-section (1) shall pay royalty in respect of minor minerals removed or consumed by him or by his agent, manager, employee, contractor or sub-lessee at the rate prescribed for the time being in the rules framed by the State Government in respect of minor minerals:

Provided that the State Government shall not enhance the rate of royalty in respect of any minor for more than once during any period of four years."

9. Amendment of section 16.—In section 16 of the principal Act, for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

- (1) (a) All mining leases granted before the commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Amendment Act, 1972, if in force at such commencement, shall be brought into conformity with the provisions of this Act, and the rules made thereunder, within six months from such commencement, or such further time as the Central Government may, by general or special order, specify in this behalf.
- (b) Where the rights under any mining lease, granted by the proprietor of an estate or tenure before the commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Amendment Act, 1972, have vested, on or after the 25th day of October, 1949, in the State Government in pursuance of the provisions of any Act of any Provincial or State Legislature which provides for the acquisition of estates or tenures or provides for agrarian reform, such mining lease shall be brought into conformity with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder within six months from the commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Amendment Act, 1972, or within such further time as the Central Government may, by general or special order, specify in this behalf."

10. Amendment of section 17.—In section 17 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1),—

- (i) the word "only" shall be omitted;
- (ii) after the words "Government of a State", the words "or any other person" shall be inserted.

11. Insertion of new section 18A.—After section 18 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"18A. Power to authorise Geological Survey of India, etc. to make investigation.—(1) Where the Central Government is of opinion that for the conservation and development of minerals in India, it is necessary to collect as precise information as possible with regard to any mineral available in or under any land in relation to which any prospecting licence or mining lease has been granted, whether by the State Government or by any other person, the Central Government may authorise the Geological Survey of India, or such other authority or agency as it may specify in this behalf, to carry out such detailed investigations for the purpose of obtaining such information as may be necessary:

- Provided that in the cases of prospecting licences or mining leases granted by a State Government, no such authorisation shall be made except after consultation with the State Government.
- (2) On the issue of any authorisation under sub-section (1), it shall be lawful for the Geological Survey of India or the specified authority or agency, and its servants and workmen—
 - (a) to enter upon such land,
 - (b) to dig or bore into the sub-soil,
 - (c) to do all other acts necessary to determine the extent of any mineral available in or under such land,
 - (d) to set out boundaries of the land in which any mineral is expected to be found,
 - (e) to mark such boundaries and line by placing marks,
 - (f) where otherwise the survey cannot be completed on the boundaries and line marked, to cut down and clear away any part of any standing crop, fence or jungle.

Provided that no such authority or agency shall enter into any building or upon any enclosed court or garden attached to a dwelling house (except with the consent of the occupier thereof without previously giving such occupier at least seven days' notice in writing of its intention to do so.

- (3) Whenever any action of the nature specified in sub-section (2) is to be taken, the Central Government shall, before or at the time when such action is taken, pay or tender payment for all necessary damage which is likely to be caused, and in case of dispute as to the sufficiency of the amount so paid or tendered or as to the person to whom it should be paid or tendered, the Central Government shall refer the dispute to the principal civil court of original jurisdiction having jurisdiction over the land in question.
- (4) The fact that there exists any such dispute as is referred to in sub-section (3) shall not be a bar to the taking of any action under sub-section (2).

- (5) After the completion of the investigation, the Geological Survey of India or the specified authority or agency by which the investigation was made shall submit to the Central Government a detailed report indicating therein the extent and nature of any mineral which lies deposited in or under the land.
- (6) The costs of the investigation made under this section shall be borne by the Central Government: Provided that where the State Government or other person in whom the minerals are vested or the holder of any prospecting licence mining lease applies to the Central Government to furnish to it or him a copy of the report submitted under sub-section (5), that State Government or other person or the holder of a prospecting licence or mining lease, as the case may be, shall bear such reasonable part of the costs of investigation, as the Central Government may specify, in this behalf and shall, on payment of such part of the costs of investigation, be entitled to receive from the Central Government a true copy of the report submitted to it under sub-section (5)."

12. Amendment of section 21.—In section 21 of the principal Act,—

- (i) for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted namely:—
- "(1) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) of section (4) shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, or with both.";
- (ii) after sub-section (2), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:—
- "(3) Where any person trespasses into any land in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 4, such trespasser may be served with an order of eviction by the State Government or any authority authorised in this behalf by that Government and the State Government or such authorised authority may, if necessary, obtain the help of the police to evict the trespasser from the land.
- (4) Whenever any person raises, without any lawful authority, any mineral from any land, and for that purpose, brings on the land any tool, equipment, vehicle or any other thing, such mineral, tool, equipment, vehicle or other thing shall be liable to be seized by a magistrate specially empowered in this behalf.
- (5) Whenever any person raises, without any lawful authority, any mineral from any land, the State Government may recover from such person the mineral so raised, or, where such mineral has already been disposed of the price thereof, and may also recover from such person, rent, royalty or tax, as the case may be, for the period during which the land was occupied by such person without any lawful authority."

13. Insertion of new section 23A.—After section 23 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"23A Compounding of offences. (1)—Any offence punishable under this Act or any rule made thereunder may, either before or after the institution, of the prosecution, be compounded by the person authorised under section 22 to make a complaint to the court with respect to that offence, on payment to that person, for credit to the Government, of such sum as that person may specify:

Provided that in the case of an offence punishable with fine only, no such sum shall exceed the maximum amount of fine which may be imposed for that offence.

(2) Where an offence is compounded under sub-section (1), no proceeding or further proceeding, as the case may be, shall be taken against the offender in respect of the offence so compounded, and the offender, if in custody, shall be released forthwith."

14. Amendment of section 25.—Section 25 of the principal Act shall be renumbered as sub-section (1) thereof, and after sub-section (1) as so renumbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2) Any rent, royalty, tax, fee or other sum due to the Government either under this Act or any rule made thereunder or under the terms and conditions of any prospecting licence or mining lease may, on a certificate of such officer as may be specified by the State Government in this behalf by general or special order, be recovered in the same manner as if it were an arrear of land revenue and every such sum which becomes due to the Government after the commencement of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Amendment Act, 1972, together with the interest due thereon, shall be a first charge on the assets of the holder of the prospecting licence or mining lease, as the case may be."

15. Amendment of section 28.—In section 28 of the principal Act, for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) Every rule and every notification made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or notification or both Houses that the rule or notification should not be made, the rule or notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that is rule or notification."

16. Insertion of Third Schedule.—After the Second Schedule to the principal Act, the following Schedule shall be inserted, namely:—

"THE THIRD SCHEDULE

(See section 9A)

CHAPTER II

TRANSFER TO PUBLIC OWNERSHIP OF GENERAL INSURANCE BUSINESS

4. Transfer of shares of Indian insurance companies.—

(1) On the appointed day all the shares in the capital of every Indian insurance company shall, by virtue of this Act, stand transferred to and vested in the Central Government free of all trusts, liabilities and encumbrances affecting them.

(2) Out of the shares so transferred and vested, the Central Government shall, immediately thereafter, by notification, provide for the transfer of not less than ten shares of every such company to such persons as may be specified in the notification to enable the Indian insurance company to function as a Government company.

(3) Every notification made under sub-section (2) shall specify the names and description of the persons to whom the shares are transferred and the particulars of the shares which are transferred to each such person.

(4) A copy of every notification made under sub-section (2) shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be sent by the Central Government to the concerned Indian insurance company, who shall, on receipt of such copy, and notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Act or in its articles of association, forthwith rectify its register of members by including therein the persons mentioned in the notification as the holders of the shares specified therein.

(5) For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that the transfer and vesting of shares effected under sub-section (1) shall not be deemed to affect any right of the Indian insurance company subsisting immediately before the appointed day against any shareholder to recover from him any sum of money on the ground that that shareholder has not paid or credited to the insurer the whole or any part of the value of the shares held by him or on any other ground whatsoever.

5. Transfer of undertakings of other existing insurers.—

(1) On the appointed day, the undertaking of every existing insurer who is not an Indian insurance company shall stand transferred to and vested in the Central Government and the Central Government shall immediately hereafter provide, by notification, for the transfer to and vesting in such Indian insurance company, as it may specify in the notification, of that undertaking.

(2) Any notification made under sub-section (1) may provide that any of the undertakings aforesaid may be transferred to and vested in more than one Indian insurance company in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notification.

6. Effect of transfer of undertakings.—(1) The undertaking of every such existing insurer as is referred to in section 5 shall be deemed to include all assets, rights, powers, authorities and privileges and all property, movable and immovable, cash balances, reserve funds, investments and all other rights and interests in, or arising out of, such property as were immediately before the appointed day in the ownership, possession, power or control of such existing insurer in relation to the undertaking, whether within or without India, and all books of accounts, registers, records and all other documents of whatever nature relating thereto, and shall also be deemed to include all borrowings, liabilities and obligations of whatever kind then subsisting of the existing insurer in relation to the undertaking.

(2) Unless otherwise expressly provided by this Act, all deeds, bonds, agreements, powers of attorney, grants of legal representation and other instruments of whatever nature subsisting or having effect immediately before the appointed day and to which any such insurer as is referred to in section 5 is a party or which are in favour of such existing insurer shall be of as full force and effect against or in favour of the Indian insurance company in which the undertaking or the part to which the instrument relates has vested and may be enforced or acted upon as fully and effectually as if, in the place of the existing insurer referred to in section 5, the Indian insurance company in which the undertaking or any part thereof has vested had been a party thereto, or as if they had been issued in its favour.

(3) If, on the appointed day, any suit, appeal or other proceeding of whatever nature in relation to any business of the undertaking which has been transferred under section 5 is pending by or against any such existing insurer as is referred to in that section, the same shall not abate, be discontinued or be in any way prejudicially affected by reason of the transfer of the undertaking or of anything contained in this Act, but the suit, appeal or other proceeding may be continued, prosecuted and enforced by or against the Indian insurance company in which the undertaking or the part to which the proceeding relates has vested.

(4) For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that in the case of a foreign insurer or, as the case may be, the Life Insurance Corporation, the provisions of section 5 and of the preceding sub-sections shall only apply to the extent to which any property appertains, in the former case, to the general insurance business carried on in India and, in the latter case, to the general insurance business carried on, whether within or without India, and to rights and powers acquired, and to debts, liabilities and obligations incurred and to contracts, agreements and other instruments made by the foreign insurer or the Life Insurance Corporation, as the case may be, for the purpose of such general insurance business and to legal proceedings relating to those purposes, and the said provisions shall be construed accordingly.

(5) If any question arises as to whether any property appertains to any such general insurance business as is referred to in this section or whether any rights, powers, liabilities or obligations were acquired or incurred or any contract, agreement or other instrument was made by the foreign insurer or the Life Insurance Corporation, as the case may be, for the purposes of any such business or whether any documents relate to those purposes, the question shall be referred to the Central Government which shall, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the persons interested in the matter, decide it in such manner as it thinks fit.

7. Transfer of service of existing employees in certain cases.—(1) Every whole-time officer or other employee of an existing insurer other than an Indian insurance company who was employed by that insurer wholly or mainly in connection with his general insurance business immediately before the appointed day shall, on the appointed day, become an officer or other employee, as the case may be, of the Indian insurer company in which the undertaking of that insurer or that part of the undertaking to which the service of the officer or other employee relates has vested, and shall hold his office or service under the Indian insurance company on the same terms and conditions and with the same rights to the pension, gratuity and other matter as would have been admissible to him if there had been no such vesting, and shall continue to do so unless and until his employment in the Indian insurance company in which the undertaking or part has vested is terminated or until his remuneration, terms and conditions are duly altered by that Indian insurance company:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to any such officer or other employee who has given, in writing, notice to the Central Government or to any person nominated in this behalf by that Government before the appointed day intimating his intention of not becoming an officer or employee of the Indian insurance company in whom the undertaking or part thereof to which his service relates has vested.

(2) If any question arises as to whether any person was a whole-time officer or employee, or as to whether any officer or employee, was employed wholly or mainly in connection with the general insurance business of the existing insurer referred to sub-section (1), immediately before the appointed day, the question shall be referred within a period of two years from the appointed day and not thereafter, to the Central Government which shall, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the person concerned in the matter, decide it in such manner as it thinks fit and such decision shall be final.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) or in any other law for the time being in force, the transfer of the services of any officer or other employee under sub-section (1) shall not entitle any such officer or other employee to any compensation under that Act or such other law, and no such claim shall be entertained by any court, tribunal or other authority.

8. Provident, superannuation, welfare and other funds.—(1) Where an existing insurer has established a provident, superannuation, welfare or any other fund for the benefit of his employees and constituted a trust in respect thereof (hereafter in this section referred to as an existing trust), the moneys standing to the credit of such fund on the appointed day, together with any other assets belonging to such fund, shall stand transferred to and vested in the Indian insurance company on the appointed day free from any such trust.

(2) Where all the employees of the Life Insurance Corporation or any other existing insurer do not become of an Indian insurance company, the monies and other assets belonging to any such fund as is referred to in sub-section (1), shall be apportioned between the trustees of the fund and the Indian insurance company in the prescribed manner; and in case of any dispute about such apportionment the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final.

(3) where the undertaking of an existing insurer has vested in more than one Indian insurance company, the Central Government may, by order, provide for the apportionment among such Indian insurance companies of monies and other assets belonging to any existing trust relating to that undertaking in such manner as in its opinion may be appropriate.

(4) The Indian insurance company shall as soon as may be after the appointed day constitute in respect of the moneys and other assets which are transferred to and vested in it under this section one or more trusts having objects as similar to the objects of the existing trusts as in the circumstances may be practicable.

(5) Where all the moneys and other assets belonging to an existing trust are transferred to and vested in an Indian insurance company under this section, the trustees of such trust shall, as from the appointed day, stand discharged from the trust, except as respects things done or omitted to be done before the appointed day.

CHAPTER III

GENERAL INSURANCE CORPORATION OF INDIA

9. Formation of General Insurance Corporation of India. (1) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the Central Government shall form a Government company in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, to be known as the General Insurance Corporation of India for the purpose of superintending, controlling and carrying on the business of general insurance.

(2) The authorised capital of the Corporation shall be rupees seventy-five crores, divided into seventy-five lakhs fully paid-up shares of one hundred rupees each, out of which rupees five crores shall be the initial subscribed capital of the Corporation.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), it shall not be necessary to add the word "Limited" as the last word of the name of the Corporation.

10. Transfer to Corporation of shares vested in Central Government.—All the shares in the Capital of every Indian insurance company which stand transferred to and vested in the Central Government by virtue of section 4 [with the exception of shares transferred to any person under sub-section (2) of that section] shall, immediately after such vesting, stand transferred to and vested in the Corporation and every Indian insurance company shall forthwith give effect to such transfer of shares and rectify its register of members by including therein the Corporation as the holder of such shares.

CHAPTER IV

AMOUNTS TO BE PAID FOR ACQUISITIONS

11. Amounts to be paid for transfer and vesting of shares or undertakings.—(1) For the transfer of the shares of each Indian insurance company to, and vesting in, the Central Government, under section 4, there shall be paid by the Central Government to the Corporation, for distribution to the shareholders of each such company, the amount specified against such company, in the corresponding entry under column (3) of Part A of the Schedule.

(2) For the transfer to, and vesting in the Central Government, under section 5, of the undertaking of each existing insurer, who is not an Indian insurance company, there shall be paid by the Central Government to the Corporation, for payment to each such existing insurer, the amount specified against such insurer in the corresponding entry under column (3) of Part B of the Schedule.

12. Disbursement of amounts by Corporation.—(1) The total amount paid by the Central Government under section 11 shall be treated as additional contribution to the subscribed capital of the corporation and such additional subscribed capital shall stand allotted to, and vested in, the Central Government.

(2) The Corporation shall distribute the amount paid to it under section 11, to the shareholders of Indian insurance company and to each existing insurer, who is not an Indian insurance company, in accordance with their rights and interests, and, if there is any doubt or dispute as to the right, or extent of the right, of any person to receive the whole or any part of such amount, refer such doubt or dispute to the Central Government for determination and thereafter act in accordance with the determination made by that Government.

(3) Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (2), the amount referred to in section 11 shall be given in accordance with the provisions of section 13, section 14 or section 15, as the case may be.

13. Mode of payment.—(1) Where the amount referred to in section 11 is to be given—

(a) to the members of an Indian insurance company, the amount due to each such member shall be paid in full, where it does not exceed twenty-five thousand rupees, and where it exceeds twenty-five thousand rupees, each such member shall be paid twenty-five thousand rupees and the balance of the amount due to such member shall be paid to him in three equal annual instalments, the first of which shall fall due on the appointed day;

(b) to a foreign insurer, it shall be given to him in cash within three months from the appointed day;

(c) to the Life Insurance Corporation, it shall be given to it in three equal annual instalments, the first of which shall fall due on the appointed day;

(d) to an existing insurer who is a co-operative society, it shall be distributed as soon as may be

after the appointed day in accordance with the rule of the society which will apply in case of dissolution of the society;

(e) to an existing insurer not falling within any of the foregoing provisions, it shall be apportioned by the acquiring company among the individual policy-holders of the insurer whose policies with that insurer were in force on the appointed day and were comprised in the undertaking of such insurer in proportion to the premiums paid by the policy-holders under such policies and every such payment shall be made either—

(i) in cash, to be sent by postal money order, or

(ii) at the option of the policy-holder, as a deduction in the premium due at the time of the renewal of the policy and such option shall be exercised by the policy-holder before the expiry of three months from the appointed day (or within such further time not exceeding three months as the Central Government may, on the application of the policy-holder, allow); and the option so exercised shall be final and shall not be altered or rescinded after it has been exercised:

Provided that if any policy-holder fails to exercise his option within the time allowed, he shall be deemed to have exercised his option in favour of payment in cash by postal money order.

(2) Where any amount is payable whether in instalments or otherwise under the provisions of this section, the unpaid amount, where its payment has become due; shall carry interest at the rate of four per cent per annum from the appointed day.

14. Amount payable to shareholders may be paid to named persons instead in certain cases.—Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Act, if a majority in number of the persons, who, immediately before the appointed day, were registered in the books of an Indian insurance company as the members thereof, and representing two-thirds in value of the amount payable to the Indian insurance company, agree either in person or by proxy at a meeting specially convened for the purpose that the amount so payable instead of being distributed among the members, shall be given to any such person or body of persons as the members may nominate either at that meeting or subsequently for the purpose of carrying on any business, and the Central Government is satisfied that due provision has been or will be made for the payment of the value of their respective shares to persons who have dissented from the resolution, the amount may be given to the person or body of persons so nominated in such manner and subject to such conditions as the Central Government may think fit.

(2) No resolution passed at any such meeting as is referred to in sub-section (1) held after the appointed day shall have any effect unless the meeting has been convened after obtaining the approval of the Central Government.

15. Payment into court in case of rival claims.—Where a claim to the amount payable under section 11 is made by two or more persons adversely to one another, the corporation may cause the amount to be deposited in any civil court having jurisdiction in that behalf and the court shall decide as to whom the payment shall be made.

CHAPTER V

SCHEME FOR REORGANISATION OF GENERAL INSURANCE BUSINESS

16. Schemes for mergers of companies etc.—(1) If the Central Government is of opinion that for the more efficient carrying on of general insurance business it is necessary so to do, it may, by notification, frame one or more schemes providing for all or any of the following matters:—

(a) the merger in one Indian insurance company of any other Indian insurance company, or the formation of a new company by the amalgamation of two or more Indian insurance companies;

(b) the transfer to and vesting in the acquiring company of the undertaking (including all its business, properties, assets and liabilities) of any Indian insurance company which ceases to exist by reason of the scheme;

(c) the constitution, name and registered office and the capital structure of the acquiring company and the issue and allotment of shares;

(d) the constitution of a board of management by whatever name called for the management of the acquiring company;

(e) the alteration of the memorandum and articles of association of the acquiring company for such purposes as may be necessary to give effect to the scheme;

(f) the continuance in the acquiring company of the services of all officers and other employees of the Indian insurance company which has ceased to exist by reason of the scheme, on the same terms and conditions which they were getting or, as the case may be, by which they were governed immediately before the commencement of the scheme;

(g) rationalisation or revision of pay scales and other terms and conditions of service of officers and other employees wherever necessary;

(h) the transfer to the acquiring company of the provident, superannuation, welfare and other funds relating to the officers and other employees of the Indian insurance company which has ceased to exist by reason of the scheme;

(i) the continuance by or against the acquiring company of legal proceedings pending by or against any Indian insurance company which has ceased to exist by reason of the scheme, and the initiation of such legal proceedings, civil or criminal, as the Indian insurance company might have initiated if it had not ceased to exist;

(j) such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters as are necessary to give full effect to the scheme.

(2) In framing schemes under sub-section (1), the object of the Central Government shall be to ensure that ultimately there are only four companies (excluding the Corporation) in existence and that they are so situate as to render their combined services effective in all parts of India.

(3) Where a scheme under sub-section (1) provides for the transfer of any property or liabilities, then, by virtue of the scheme, the property shall stand transferred to and vested in, and those liabilities shall be transferred to and become the liabilities of, the acquiring company.

(4) If the rationalisation or revision of any pay scale or other terms and conditions of service under any scheme is not acceptable to any officer or other employee, the acquiring company may terminate his employment by giving him compensation equivalent to three months remuneration, unless the contract of service with such employee provides for a shorter notice of termination.

Explanation.—The compensation payable to an officer or other employee under this sub-section shall be in addition to, and shall not affect, any pension, gratuity, provident fund or other benefit to which the employee may be entitled under his contract of service.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) or in any other law for the time being in force, the transfer of the services of any officer or other employee of an Indian insurance company to the acquiring company shall not entitle any such officer or other employee to any compensation under that Act or other law, and no such claim shall be entertained by any court, tribunal or other authority.

(6) The Central Government may, by notification, add to, amend or vary any scheme framed under this section.

(7) The provisions of this section and of any scheme framed under it shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law or any agreement, award or other instrument for the time being in force.

17. Schemes to be laid before Parliament.—A copy of every scheme and every amendment thereto framed under section 16 shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament.

CHAPTER VI

FUNCTIONS OF CORPORATION AND ACQUIRING COMPANIES AND THEIR MANAGEMENT

18. Functions of Corporation.—(1) The functions of the Corporation shall include—

(a) the carrying on of any part of the general insurance business, if it thinks it desirable to do so;

(b) aiding, assisting and advising the acquiring companies in the matter of setting up of standards of conduct and sound practice in general insurance business and in the matter of rendering efficient service to holders of policies of general insurance;

(c) advising the acquiring companies in the matter of controlling their expenses including the payment of commission and other expenses;

(d) advising the acquiring companies in the matter of the investment of their funds;

(e) issuing directions to acquiring companies in relation to the conduct of general insurance business.

(2) In issuing any directions under sub-section (1), the Corporation shall keep in mind desirability of encouraging competition amongst the acquiring companies as far as possible in order to render their services more efficient.

19. Functions of acquiring companies.—(1) Subject to the rules, if any, made by the Central Government in this behalf and to its memorandum and articles of association, it shall be the duty of every acquiring company to carry on general insurance business.

(2) Each acquiring company shall so function under this Act as to secure that general insurance business is developed to the best advantage of the community.

(3) In the discharge of any of its functions, each acquiring company shall act so far as may be on business principles and where any directions have been issued by the Corporation, shall be guided by such directions.

(4) For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that the Corporation and any acquiring company may, subject to the rules, if any, made by the Central Government in this behalf, enter into such contracts of insurance or reinsurance treaties as it may think fit for the protection of its interests.

20. Balance of profit how to be utilised.—(1) After making provision for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation in assets, provident, superannuation, welfare and other funds, debts due to Government and all other matters for which provision is necessary under any law or which are usually provided for by insurance companies, every acquiring company shall distribute the balance of profit as dividends.

(2) Any profit made by the Corporation and any sums received by the Corporation by way of dividends or otherwise shall be dealt with by it in such manner as may be prescribed.

21. Interim provisions for management of Indian insurance companies.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Act, or in the memorandum and articles of association of any Indian insurance company, on and from the appointed day and until a new board of directors of the Indian insurance company is duly constituted, the management of the company shall continue to vest in the Custodian in charge of the management of the undertaking of that company immediately before the appointed day by virtue of the provisions contained in the General Insurance (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1971 (17 of 1971) and the Custodian shall be entitled, subject to such directions as the Central Government may issue in this behalf, to exercise all the powers and do all acts and things as may be exercised or done by the company or by its board of directors.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to prevent the Central Government from appointing any other person to take charge of the management of the undertaking of any Indian insurance company during the period referred to in that sub-section if for any reason it becomes necessary so to do, and any person so appointed may exercise all the powers and do all acts and things which a Custodian may exercise or do under sub-section (1).

(3) The Custodian referred to in sub-section (1) and the person appointed under sub-section (2) shall be entitled to such salaries and other allowances as the Central Government may specify in this behalf and shall hold office during the pleasure of the Central Government.

22. Power of Central Government to transfer employees.—The Corporation may at any time transfer any officer or employee from an acquiring company or the Corporation to any other acquiring company or the Corporation, as the case may be, and the officer or employee so transferred, shall continue to have the same terms and conditions of service as were applicable to him immediately before such transfer.

23. Power of Central Government to issue directions.—The Corporation and every acquiring company shall, in the discharge of its functions, be guided by such directions in regard to matters of policy involving public interest as the Central Government may give.

CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS

24. Acquiring companies to have the exclusive privilege of carrying on general insurance business.—(1) Except to the extent expressly provided in this Act, on and from the appointed day, the Corporation and the acquiring companies shall have the exclusive privilege of carrying on general insurance business in India.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 36, any certificate of registration granted under the Insurance Act to any insurer other than an insurer referred to in sub-section (1) shall, on and from the appointed day, cease to have effect:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to the carrying on by the Life Insurance Corporation of life insurance business and capital redemption and annuity certain business.

25. Properties in India not to be insured with foreign insurers except with permission of Central Government.—(1) No person shall take out or renew any policy of insurance in respect of any property in India or any ship or other vessel or aircraft registered in India with an insurer whose principal place of business is outside India save with the prior permission of the Central Government.

(2) If any person contravenes any provision of sub-section (1), he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

26. Acquiring companies and income-tax.—For the purposes of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961), every acquiring company shall be deemed to be an Indian company and a company in which the public are substantially interested.

27. Power to reduce amounts of insurance in certain cases.—An acquiring company may, having regard to its financial condition on the 13th day of May, 1971 or the financial condition on the said date of any existing insurer whose undertaking has been transferred to and vested in it under this Act reduce the liabilities which have arisen under contracts of general insurance entered into before the said date in such manner and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit:

Provided that no such reduction shall be made except in accordance with specific proposals made by the acquiring company in this behalf and approved by the Central Government.

28. Right of acquiring company to seek relief in respect of certain transactions.—(1) Where an existing insurer has at any time within five years before the 13th day of May, 1971—

- (a) made any payment to any person without consideration,
 - (b) sold or disposed of any property of the insurer without consideration or for an inadequate consideration,
 - (c) acquired any property or rights for an excessive consideration,
 - (d) entered into or varied any agreement so as to require an excessive consideration to be paid or given by the insurer,
 - (e) entered into any other transaction of such an onerous nature as to cause a loss to, or impose a liability on, the insurer exceeding any benefit accruing to the insurer,
- and the payment, sale, disposal, acquisition, agreement or variation thereof or other transaction was not reasonably necessary for the purpose of the general insurance business of the insurer or was made with an unreasonable lack of prudence on the part of the insurer, regard being had in either case to the circumstances at the time, the acquiring company may apply for relief to the court in respect of such transaction, and all parties to the transaction shall, unless the court otherwise directs, be made parties to the application.

(2) The court may make such order against any of the parties to the application as it thinks just having regard to the extent to which those parties were respectively responsible for the transaction or benefited from it and all the circumstances of the case.

(3) Where an application is made to the court under this section in respect of any transaction and the application is determined in favour of the acquiring company, the court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine any claim outstanding in respect of the transaction.

29. Duty to deliver possession of property and documents relating thereto.—(1) Where any property appertaining to an existing insurer has been transferred to and vested in an Indian insurance company under section 5,—

- (a) every person in whose possession, custody or control any such property may be, shall deliver the property to the Indian insurance company forthwith,
- (b) any person who immediately before such vesting has in his possession, custody or control any books, documents or other papers relating to an existing insurer shall be liable to account for the said books, documents and papers to the Indian insurance company, and shall deliver them to that company or to such person as that company may direct.

(2) In particular, all the assets of an existing insurer appertaining to the undertaking held in deposit by the Reserve Bank of India under the Insurance Act or by trustees in trust shall be delivered to the Indian insurance company.

(3) Without prejudice to the other provisions contained in this section, it shall be lawful for each Indian insurance company to take all necessary steps for taking possession of all properties which have been transferred to and vested in it under this act.

30. Penalty for withholding property, etc.—If any person wilfully withholds or fails to deliver to an Indian insurance company as required by section 29 any property or any books, documents or other papers which may be in his possession or unlawfully retains possession of any property of an existing insurer which has been transferred to and vested in an Indian insurance company under section 5 or wilfully applies any such property to purposes other than those expressed in or authorised by this Act, he shall, on the complaint of the Indian insurance company, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

31. Officers and employees of Corporation or of acquiring companies to be public servants.—Every officer or other employee of the Corporation or of an acquiring company shall be deemed to be a public servant for the purposes of Chapter IX of the Indian Penal Code. (45 of 1860).

32. Indemnity.—Every officers of the Central Government and every officer or other employee of the Corporation and of any acquiring company shall be indemnified by the Central Government or the Corporation or the acquiring company, as the case may be, against all losses and expenses incurred by him in, or in relation to, the discharge of his duties under this Act except such as have been caused by his own wilful act or default.

33. Dissolution of Corporation and acquiring companies.—No provision of law relating to the winding up of companies shall apply to the Corporation or to an acquiring company, and neither the Corporation nor any such company shall be placed in liquidation save by order of the Central Government and in such manner as it may direct.

34. Reference to existing insurer in other laws.—Any reference to an existing insurer in any law other than this Act or any contract or other instrument shall, in so far as it relates to an acquiring company, be construed as a reference to that company.

35. Application of Insurance Act.—Subject to such exceptions, restrictions and limitations, if any, as the Central Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf, the Insurance Act shall apply to or in relation to the Corporation and every acquiring company as if the Corporation or the acquiring company, as the case may be, were an insurer carrying on general insurance business within the meaning of that Act.

36. Exemptions.—(1) Nothing contained in this Act shall apply in relation to—

- (a) any general insurance business carried on by a State Government, to the extent to which such insurance relates to properties belonging to it or undertakings owned wholly or mainly by the State Government; or to properties belonging to semi-government bodies, or any Board or body corporate established by the State Government under any statute or any industrial or commercial undertaking in which the State Government has substantial financial interest, whether as shareholder, lender or guarantor;

- (b) any general insurance business not falling within clause (a) which has been carried on by a State Government before the commencement of this Act, to the extent to which it is necessary to allow such business to run off;

Provided that nothing contained in this clause shall be deemed to authorise the State Government to issue any new policies or renew any existing policies;

- (c) any insurer whose business is being voluntarily wound up or is being wound up by a court;
- (d) the insurance business carried on by the Calcutta Hospital and Nursing Home Benefits Association Limited;
- (e) the insurance business carried on by the Export Credit and Guarantee Corporation Limited and the Deposit Insurance Corporation established under section 3 of the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 (47 of 1961);

- (f) any scheme in existence immediately before the 14th day of May, 1971 or any scheme framed after the said day with the approval of the Central Government for the insurance of crops or of cattle or of flood risks or of war or emergency risks.

(2) If the Central Government is satisfied that an insurer, whether established before or after the appointed day, carries on only such general insurance business as is not carried on ordinarily by insurers, it may by notification, direct that nothing contained in this Act shall apply to such insurer.

37. Vacancies, etc., not to invalidate proceedings.—No act or proceeding of the Corporation or of an acquiring company shall be called in question merely on the ground of the existence of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of, the Corporation or the company.

38. Protection of action taken in good faith.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any officer of the Central Government or officer or other employee of the Corporation or of the acquiring company for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

39. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification, make rules to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, rules made under this section may provide for—

- (a) the manner in which the profits, if any, and other moneys received by the Corporation may be dealt with;
- (b) the conditions, if any, subject to which the Corporation and the acquiring companies shall carry on general insurance business;
- (c) the terms and conditions subject to which any reinsurance contracts or treaties may be entered into;

- (d) the form and manner in which any notice or application may be given or made to the Central Government;
- (e) the reports which may be called for by the Central Government from the Corporation and the acquiring companies;
- (f) any other matter which is required to be, or may be, prescribed.

two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or notification or both Houses agree that the rule or notification should not be made, the rule or notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or notification.

(3) Every rule made under this section and every notification issued under section 35 shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in

40. Omission of section 14 of Act. 17 of 1971—Section 14 of the General Insurance (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1971, is omitted.

THE INDIAN COPPER CORPORATION (ACQUISITION OF UNDERTAKING) ACT, 1972

ACT No. 58 OF 1972

AN

to provide for the acquisition of the undertaking of the Indian Copper Corporation Limited for the purpose of enabling the Central Government to conserve and exploit, in a scientific and rational manner, to the maximum advantage of the nation, the copper deposits in the Singhbhum belt in the State of Bihar, to utilise the copper deposits in such manner as to subserve the common good, in the context of the requirements of copper in the country, and* for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Indian Copper Corporation (Acquisition of Undertaking) Act, 1972.

2. Declaration as to the policy of the State.—It is hereby declared that this Act is for giving effect to the policy of the State towards securing the principles specified in clause (b) of article 39 of the Constitution.

Explanation.—In this section, “State” has the same meaning as in article 12 of the Constitution.

3. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “appointed day” means the date of commencement of this Act;

(b) “company” means the Indian Copper Corporation Limited, being a company incorporated in England and having its principal place of business, in India, at Gillander House, Netaji Subhash Road, Calcutta-1;

(c) “Hindustan Copper” means the Hindustan Copper Limited, being a Government company as defined in section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956) and having its registered office at Khetri Nagar in the State of Rajasthan;

(d) “undertaking of the company” means the undertaking of the company in India.

CHAPTER II

ACQUISITION OF THE UNDERTAKING OF THE INDIAN COPPER CORPORATION LIMITED

4. Undertaking of the company to vest in Central Government.—On the appointed day, the undertaking of the company shall, by virtue of this Act, stand transferred to, and vested in, the Central Government.

5. General effect of vesting under section 4.—(1) The undertaking of the company shall be deemed to include all assets, rights, leaseholds (including mining leases, if any); powers, authorities and privileges; and all property, movable and immovable, including lands, buildings, works, mines, workshops, projects, smelters, refineries, stores, instruments, machinery, locomotives, automobiles and other vehicles, mined or extracted copper and other ores, concentrates and metals, in process or in stock or in transit; cash balances, cash on hand, reserve fund, investments and book debts; and all other rights and interests arising out of such property as were immediately before the appointed day in the ownership, possession, power or control of the company in relation to its undertaking in India; and all books of account, registers, maps, plans, sections, drawings, records of survey and all other documents of whatever nature relating thereto; and shall also be deemed to include all borrowings, liabilities and obligations of whatever kind then subsisting of the company in relation to its undertaking in India.

(2) All property included as aforesaid in the undertaking of the company which has vested in the Central Government under section 4 shall, by force of such vesting, be freed and discharged from any trusts, obligations, mortgages, charges, liens and other incumbrances affecting it, and any attachment, injunction or any decree or order of any court restricting the use of such property in any manner shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

(3) Subject to the other provisions contained in this Act, all contracts and working arrangements which are subsisting immediately before the appointed day and affecting the company shall, in so far as they relate to the undertaking of the company, cease to have effect or be enforceable against the company or any person who was surety, or had guaranteed the performance thereof and shall be of as full force and effect against or in favour of the Central Government and enforceable as fully and effectually as if instead of the company, the Central Government had been named therein or had been a party thereto.

(4) Subject to the other provisions contained in this Act, any proceeding or cause of action pending or existing immediately before the appointed day by or against the company in relation to its undertaking in India may, as from such commencement, be continued and enforced by or against the Central Government as it might have been enforced by or against the company if this Act had not been passed, and shall cease to be enforceable by or against the company, its surety or guarantor.

6. Power of Central Government to direct vesting of the undertaking in Hindustan Copper.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 4 and 5, the Central Government may, by order in writing, direct that the undertaking of the company together with all its properties, assets, liabilities and obligations specified in sub-section (1) of section 5 shall, instead of continuing to vest in the Central Government, vest in Hindustan Copper either on the date of publication of the direction or on such earlier or later date (not being a date earlier than the appointed day) as may be specified in that direction.

(2) Where an order vesting the undertaking of the company in Hindustan Copper is made under sub-section (1), all the rights, liabilities and obligations of the Central Government in relation to the undertaking of the company shall, on and from the date of such vesting, be deemed to have become the rights, liabilities and obligations, respectively of Hindustan Copper.

(3) Hindustan Copper shall, in the management and administration of the undertaking of the company, act in accordance with such directions, if any, as may be issued by the Central Government in this behalf.

(4) Hindustan Copper may also apply to the Central Government at any time for instructions as to the manner in which the management of the undertaking of the company or in relation to any matter arising in the course of such management shall be conducted.

7. Duty to deliver possession of property acquired and documents relating thereto.—(1) Where any property has vested in the Central Government or Hindustan Copper under this Act, every person in whose possession or custody or under whose control the property may be, shall deliver the property to the Central Government or Hindustan Copper, as the case may be, forthwith.

(2) Any person who, on the appointed day, has in his possession or under his control, any books, documents or other papers relating to the undertaking of the company, which have vested in the Central Government or Hindustan Copper under this Act and which belong to the company or would have so belonged if the undertaking of the company had not vested in the Central Government or Hindustan Copper, shall be liable to account for the said books, documents and papers to the Central Government or Hindustan Copper, as the case may be, and shall deliver them up to the Central Government or Hindustan Copper.

(3) The Central Government or Hindustan Copper, may take, or cause to be taken, all necessary steps for securing possession of all properties which have vested in that Government or Hindustan Copper under this Act.

8. Duty to furnish particulars.—The company shall, within one month from the appointed day or such further period as the Central Government may allow in this behalf, furnish, in respect of the undertaking of the company, as on the appointed day, a complete inventory of—

- (i) all the properties and assets;
- (ii) all the liabilities and obligations; and
- (iii) all agreements entered into by the company and in force on that day (including agreements, whether express or implied, relating to leave, pension, gratuity and other terms of service of any officer or other employee of the company), under which, by virtue of this Act, the Central Government or Hindustan Copper has, or will have, or may have, liabilities or obligations, and for this purpose, the Central Government or Hindustan Copper shall afford the company all reasonable facilities.

9. Transfer of service of existing employees.—(1) Every officer or other employee employed, immediately before the appointed day, in connection with the affairs of the undertaking of the company, shall, as from that day, become an officer or other employee of the Central Government and shall, as from the date of publication of the direction made under sub-section (1) of section 6 or the date specified therein, become an officer or other employee of Hindustan Copper and shall hold his office by the same tenure, at the same remuneration and upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as to pension, gratuity and other matters as he would have held under the company, if this Act had not been passed, and shall continue to do so, unless and until his employment in the Central Government or, as the case may be, in Hindustan Copper, is terminated or until his remuneration, terms and conditions are duly altered by the Central Government or Hindustan Copper.

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to any officer or other employee, who has by notice in writing given to the Central Government within thirty days from the appointed day, intimated his intention of not becoming an officer or other employee of the Central Government or Hindustan Copper.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), or in any other law for the time being in force, the transfer of the services of any officer or other employee of the company to the Central Government or Hindustan Copper by reason of the provisions of this Act shall not entitle any such officer or other employee to any compensation under that Act or other law, and no such claim shall be entertained by any court, tribunal or other authority.

10. Provident, super-annuation, welfare and other funds.—(1) Where the company has established a provident, superannuation, welfare or any other fund for the benefit of its officers or other employees and constituted a trust in respect thereof, the moneys, relatable to the officers or other employees, whose services have become transferred, by or under this Act, to the Central Government or Hindustan Copper, shall, out of the moneys standing on the appointed day, to the credit of such provident, superannuation, welfare or other fund, stand transferred, to, and vested in the Central Government or Hindustan Copper, as the case may be, free from any such trust.

(2) The moneys which stand transferred under sub-clause (1) to the Central Government or Hindustan Copper shall be dealt with by that Government or Hindustan Copper, as the case may be, in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act.

CHAPTER III

PAYMENT OF AMOUNT

11. Amount to be paid for transfer and vesting of the undertaking of the company.—(1) The company shall be given by the Central Government, in cash, an amount of rupees seven and a half crores, for vesting in it, under section 4, of the undertaking of the company.

(2) The amount payable under sub-section (1) carry simple interest at the rate of four per cent per annum from the appointed day.

CHAPTER IV

MISCELLANEOUS

12. Penalties.—(1) Any person, who—

- (a) having in his possession, custody or control any property forming part of the undertaking of the company, wrongfully withholds such property from the Central Government or Hindustan Copper; or
- (b) wrongfully obtains possession of any property forming part of the undertaking of the company which has vested in the Central Government or Hindustan Copper under this Act; or
- (c) wilfully withholds or fails to furnish to the Central Government or Hindustan Copper, as required by sub-section (2) of section 7, any document which may be in his possession, custody or control; or
- (d) wilfully fails to furnish an inventory as required under section 8; or
- (e) when required to furnish such inventory furnishes any particulars therein which are false and which he either knows or believes to be false, or does not believe to be true, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both:

Provided that the court trying any offence under clause (a) or clause (b) or clause (c) of this sub-section may, at the time of convicting the accused person, order him to deliver up or refund, within a time to be fixed by the court, any property or cash wrongfully withheld or obtained or any document wilfully withheld or not furnished.

(2) No court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under this section except with the previous sanction of the Central Government or of an officer authorised by that Government in this behalf.

13. Offences by companies.—(1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to, any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

- (a) “company” means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and
- (b) “director”, in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

14. Receiver not to be appointed in relation to the business of the company.—No proceeding for the appointment of a Receiver in respect of the business of the company in so far as it relates to its undertaking in India, shall lie in any court except with the consent of the Central Government.

15. Act to have overriding effect.—The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any law other than this Act or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any law other than this Act or in any decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority.

16. Protection of action taken in good faith.—(1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or Hindustan Copper or any of its officers or other employees for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or Hindustan Copper or any of its officers or other employees for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

17. Contracts in bad faith may be cancelled or varied.—(1) If the Central Government is satisfied after such inquiry as it may think fit, that any contract or agreement entered into at any time within twelve months immediately preceding the 10th day of March, 1972, between the company or the managing agents of the company or any other person, in so far as such contract or agreement relates to the undertaking of the company, has been entered into in bad faith or is detrimental to the interests of the undertaking of the company, it may make an order cancelling or varying (either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose) such contract or agreement and thereafter the contract or agreement shall have effect accordingly:

Provided that no contract or agreement shall be cancelled or varied except after giving to the parties to the contract or agreement reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order under sub-section (1) may make an application to the High Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the principal place of business of the company in India is situated, for the variation or reversal of such order and thereupon such court may confirm, modify or reverse such order.

18. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(2) Every rule made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each house of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

19. Repeal of Act 11 of 1972.—The Indian Copper Corporation (Taking Over of Management) Act, 1972, is hereby repealed.

Assented to on 21-9-1972

THE FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE SERVICE OFFICERS (CONDITIONS OF SERVICE) ACT, 1972

(ACT No. 59 OF 1972)

AN

to provide for the variation or revocation of the conditions of service of former Secretary of State Service Officers in respect of certain matters and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This act may be called the Former Secretary of State Service Officers (Conditions of Service) Act, 1972.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,

(a) “appointed day” means the date on which this Act comes into force;

(b) “former Secretary of State Service Officers” means a person referred to in sub-clause (a) or sub-clause (b) of clause (1) of article 312A of the Constitution;

(c) “I. C. S. member of the Indian Administrative Service” means a person who was appointed to the Civil Service of the Crown in India known as the Indian Civil Service and who on the appointed day is a member of the Indian Administrative Service;

(d) “I.P. member of the Indian Police Service” means a person who was appointed to the Police

Service of the Crown in India known as the Indian Police and who on the appointed day is a member of the Indian Police Service;

(e) “pension” has the meaning assigned to it in clause (17) of article 366 of the Constitution.

3. Conditions of Service of I.C.S. members of the Indian Administrative Service.—Subject to the other provisions of this Act, on and from the appointed day,—

(a) the conditions of service as respects,—

(i) remuneration,

(ii) leave, and

(iii) pension;

(b) the rights as respects disciplinary matters; and

(c) the conditions of service and the rights as respects all other matters, of the I.C.S. members of the Indian Administrative Service shall be the same as those of the other members of that Service and accordingly and subject as aforesaid, the provisions of the All-India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), and the rules and regulations made or deemed to have been made thereunder, as in force from time to time, shall apply to and in relation to the I.C.S. members of the Indian Administrative Service as they apply to and in relation to the other members of that Service.

4. Conditions of Service of I.P. members of the Indian Police Service.—Subject to the other provisions of this Act, on and from the appointed day,—

(a) the conditions of service as respects,—

(i) remuneration,

(ii) leave, and

(iii) pension;

(b) the rights as respects disciplinary matters; and

(c) the conditions of service and the rights as respects all other matters,

of the I.P. members of the Indian Police Service shall be the same as those of the other members of that Service and accordingly and subject as aforesaid, the provisions of the All-India Service Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), and the rules and regulations made or deemed to have been made thereunder, as in force from time to time, shall apply to and in relation to the I.P. members of the Indian Police Service as they apply to and in relation to the other members of that Service.

5. Pay of I.C.S. members of Indian Administrative Service and I.P. members of Indian Police Service.—Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3 or section 4, an I.C.S. member of the Indian Administrative Service or an I.P. member of the Indian Police Service, as the case may be, holding a post specified in the Schedule or a post declared by the Central Government to be equivalent to such post shall, for so long as he holds that post, be entitled to draw pay as indicated against the post in the Schedule.

6. Retirement of I. C. S. members of Indian Administrative Service and I. P. members of Indian Police Service.—Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3 or section 4,—

(a) an I. C. S. member of the Indian Administrative Service, unless his service has been extended before the appointed day in accordance with the rules and regulations then applicable or is extended on or after that day in accordance with the rules and regulations applicable to the other members of the Indian Administrative Service, shall retire compulsorily,—

(i) where he attains the age of fifty-eight years before the expiry of six months from the appointed day, on the date of expiry of the said period of six months or on the date on which he shall retire compulsorily in accordance with the rules applicable to him immediately before the appointed day, whichever date is earlier;

(ii) in any other case, on his attaining the age of fifty-eight years;

(b) the Central Government shall have and shall be deemed always to have had the power to require an I. C. S. member of the Indian Administrative Service or an I. P. member of the Indian Police Service, in consultation with the Government of the State on whose cadre he is borne and after giving to such member at least three months' previous notice in writing, to retire in public interest from service on the date on which such member completes thirty years of qualifying service or attains fifty years of age or on any date thereafter to be specified in the notice;

(c) an I. C. S. member of the Indian Administrative Service or an I. P. member of the Indian Police Service may, after giving at least three months' previous notice in writing to the Government of the State on whose cadre he is borne, retire from service on the date on which such member completes thirty years of qualifying service or attains fifty years of age or on any date thereafter to be specified in the notice:

Provided that no member under suspension shall retire from service except with the specific approval of the Government of the State on whose cadre he is borne.

Explanation.—For the purposes of clause (b) and clause (c), "qualifying service" means service qualifying for purposes of pension.

7. Pension of I.C.S. members of Indian Administrative Service.—Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3,—

(a) an I. C. S. member of the Indian Administrative Service shall, subject to the provisions of section 8 and subject to the same provisions in regard to the right of the Central Government to withdraw the whole or any part of pension or to order recovery of pension and the same conditions for grant of retirement benefits, as are applicable for the time being in the case of other members of the Indian Administrative Service, be entitled on his retirement from service in accordance with the provisions of section 6, to receive by way of annuity rupees thirteen thousand three hundred and thirty-three and one-third;

(b) no death-cum-retirement gratuity benefits shall be available to or in respect of an I. C. S. member of the Administrative Service unless such member has exercised his option for such benefits before the appointed day in accordance with the orders of the Central Government in that behalf and the benefits admissible to or in relation to an I. C. S. member of the Service who so exercised his option shall be subject to the conditions specified in the said orders and to the same conditions for grant of retirement benefits as are applicable for the time being in the case of other members of the Indian Administrative Service;

(c) no family pension benefits shall be admissible in relation to an I. C. S. member of the Indian Administrative Service unless such member exercised his option in respect of such benefits before the appointed day in accordance with the orders of the Central Government in that behalf and the benefits admissible in relation to an I. C. S. member of the service who so exercised his option shall be subject to the conditions specified in the said orders;

(d) the Provident Fund account of an I. C. S. member of the Indian Administrative Service shall be credited, on his retirement or previous death, with the same amount, if any, as would have been credited by way of contribution in accordance with the rules in force immediately before the appointed day.

8. Pension payable to former Secretary of State Service officers in Indian currency only.—(1) No former Secretary of State Service officer shall be entitled, or be deemed ever to have been entitled, to claim,—

(a) pension in sterling; or

(b) that his pension shall be paid outside India: or

(c) where his pension was expressed in sterling or a fixed sterling minimum was applicable in respect of the pension payable to him, that his pension shall be computed in the rupee equivalent of the amount fixed in sterling at a rate of exchange exceeding the rate of rupees thirteen and one-third to the pound sterling.

(2) Notwithstanding any judgment, decree or order of any court, every former Secretary of State Service officer who has been paid the rupee equivalent or, as the case may be, the pound sterling equivalent of his pension by calculating such pension with reference to a rate of exchange exceeding the rate of exchange of rupees thirteen and one-third to the pound sterling, shall refund to the Central Government or, as the case may be, the State Government, the sum by which the amount paid to him exceeds the amount which would have been payable to him if the calculation had been made at the rate of exchange of rupees thirteen and one-third to the pound sterling and the Central Government or the State Government may set off, in such manner as it may deem fit, the amount required to be so refunded to it by any such officer against any sum (including pension) which is or which may become due from that Government to such officer.

(3) For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) shall apply to a former Secretary of State Service officer who is holding or has held the office of the Chief Justice or other Judge of the Supreme Court or a High Court, the Comptroller and Auditor General of India, the Chairman or other member of the Union or a State Public Service Commission or the Chief Election Commissioner, as they apply to other former Secretary of State Service officers.

9. Power of Central Government to adapt certain rules, regulations and orders.—(1) For the purpose of bringing the provisions of any rules and regulations made or deemed to have been made under the All-India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951) or any rules, regulations or orders (including any other instrument having the force of law) applicable immediately before the appointed day to or in relation to former Secretary of State Service officers into accord with the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, before the expiry of two years from the appointed day, by order published in the official Gazette, make such adaptations and modifications of such rules, regulations or orders, whether by way of repeal or amendment, as may be necessary.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any power under any other law to amend or repeal the rules, regulations and orders referred to in that sub-section.

Amendment of section 2.—In section 2 of the Wakf Act, 1954 (29 of 1954), (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in the proviso, for the words, figures and brackets “the Durgah Khawaja Saheb Act, 1936 (23 of 1936) and the Durgah Khawaja Saheb (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1950 (17 of 1950) apply,” the words and figures “the Durgah Khawaja Saheb Act, 1955, (36 of 1955) applies” shall be substituted.

3. Amendment of section 3.—In section 3 of the principal Act, for clause (g), the following clause shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, substituted, namely:—

“(g) “net annual income”, in relation to a wakf, means the gross income thereof from all sources in a year excluding only—

- (i) land revenue, cess, rates and taxes payable to the Government or any local authority; and
- (ii) donations given or offerings made with a specific direction that they shall form part of the corpus of the wakf;

Provided that the interest or income, if any, accruing from such donations or offering shall be taken into account in calculating the gross annual income;”

4. Amendment of section 4.—In section 4 of the principal Act, in sub-section (3),—

- (a) after the words “submit his report”, the words, “in respect of wakfs existing at the date of the commencement of this Act in the State or any

10. Power to construe rules, regulation and orders.—Notwithstanding that no provision or insufficient provision has been made under section 9 for the adaptation of any rule, regulation or order referred to in that section, any court, tribunal or authority, required or empowered to enforce such rule, regulation or order may construe it with such modifications as may be necessary to bring it into accord with the provisions of this Act.

11. Power to remove difficulties. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by general or special order published in the Official Gazette, for the purpose of removing the difficulty, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as appear to it to be necessary or expedient:

Provided that no such order shall be made under this sub-section after the expiry of three years from the appointed day.

(2) Every order made under sub-section (1) shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before each House of Parliament.

12. Act to have over-riding effect. The provisions of this Act or of any order made thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any law other than this Act or in any rule, regulation or order or other instrument having effect by virtue of any law other than this Act.

13. Saving of orders in respect of disciplinary matters.—Any order in respect of disciplinary matters in relation to any I. C. S. member of the Indian Administrative Service or any I. P. member of the Indian Police Service in force immediately before the appointed day shall continue in force as from the appointed day:

Provided that nothing in this section shall derogate from the powers of the competent authority to vary or rescind such order.

THE OATHS ACT, 1969

(ACT No. 44 OF 1969)

AN

to consolidate and amend the law relating to judicial oaths and for certain other purposes.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twentieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called the Oaths Act, 1969.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

2. Saving of certain oaths and affirmations.—Nothing in this Act shall apply to proceedings before courts martial or to oaths, affirmations or declarations prescribed by the Central Government with respect to members of the Armed Forces of the Union.

3. Power to administer oaths.—(1) The following courts and persons shall have power to administer, by themselves or, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 6, by an officer empowered by them in this behalf, oaths and affirmations in discharge of the duties imposed or in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by law, namely:—

- all courts and persons having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence;
- the commanding officer of any military, naval, or air force station or ship occupied by the Armed Forces of the Union, provided that the oath or affirmation is administered within the limits of the station.

(2) Without prejudice to the powers conferred by sub-section (1) or by or under any other law for the time being in force, any court, Judge, Magistrate or person may administer oaths and affirmations for the purpose of affidavits, if empowered in this behalf—

- by the High Court, in respect of affidavits for the purpose of judicial proceedings; or
- by the State Government, in respect of other affidavits.

4. Oaths or affirmations to be made by witnesses, interpreters and jurors.—(1) Oaths or affirmations shall be made by the following persons, namely:—

- all witnesses, that is to say, all persons who may lawfully be examined, or give, or be required to give, evidence by or before any court or person having by law or consent of parties authority to examine such persons or to receive evidence;
- interpreters of questions put to, and evidence given by, witnesses; and
- jurors:

Provided that where the witness is a child under twelve years of age, and the court or person having authority to examine such witness is of opinion that, though the witness understands the duty of speaking the truth, he does not understand the nature of an oath or affirmation, the foregoing provisions of this section and the provisions of section 5 shall not apply to such witness; but in any such case the absence of an oath or affirmation shall not render inadmissible any evidence given by such witness nor affect the obligation of the witness to state the truth.

(2) Nothing in this section shall render it lawful to administer, in a criminal proceeding, an oath or affirmation to the accused person, unless he is examined as a witness for the defence, or necessary to administer to the official interpreter of any court, after the has entered on the execution of the duties of his office, an oath or affirmation that he will faithfully discharge those duties.

5. Affirmation by persons desiring to affirm.—A witness, interpreter or juror may, instead of making an oath, make an affirmation.

6. Forms of oaths and affirmations.—(1) All oaths and affirmations made under section 4 shall be administered according to such one of the forms given in the Schedule as may be appropriate to the circumstances of the case:

Provided that if a witness in any judicial proceeding desires to give evidence on oath or solemn affirmation in any form common amongst, or held binding by, persons of the class to which he belongs, and not repugnant to justice or decency, and not purporting to affect any third person, the court may, if it thinks fit, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, allow him to give evidence on such oath or affirmation.

(2) All such oaths and affirmations shall, in the case of all courts other than the Supreme Court and the High Courts, be administered by the presiding officer of the court himself, or, in the case of a Bench of Judges or Magistrates, by any one of the Judges or Magistrates, as the case may be.

7. Proceedings and evidence not invalidated by omission of oath or irregularity.—No omission to take any oath or make any affirmation, no substitution of any one for any other of them, and no irregularity whatever in the administration of any oath or affirmation or in the form in which it is administered, shall invalidate any proceeding or render inadmissible any evidence whatever, in or in respect of which such omission, substitution or irregularity took place, or shall affect the obligation of a witness to state the truth.

8. Persons giving evidence bound to state the truth.—Every person giving evidence on any subject before any court or person hereby authorised to administer oaths and affirmations shall be bound to state the truth on such subject.

9. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Indian Oaths Act, 1873, (10 of 1873) is hereby repealed.

(2) Where, in any proceeding pending at the commencement of this Act, the parties have agreed to be bound by any such oath or affirmation as is specified in section 8 of the said Act, then, notwithstanding the repeal of the said Act, the provisions of sections 9 to 12 of the said Act shall continue to apply in relation to such agreement as if this Act had not been passed.

THE SCHEDULE

(See section 6)

THE PAYMENT OF BONDS (AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE, 1972

(No. 8 OF 1972)

Promulgated by the President in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India

An Ordinance further to amend the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965

Whereas Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

1. Short title and Commencement (1).—This Ordinance may be called the payment of Bonus (Amendment) Ordinance, 1972.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Act 21 of 1965 to be temporarily amended.—During the period of operation of this Ordinance, the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act) shall have effect subject to the amendments specified in sections 3, 4 and 5.

3. Amendment of section 10.—Section 10 of the principal Act shall be re-numbered, as sub-section (1) thereof, and—

(i) in sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, in the proviso, for the words “this section”, the words “this sub-section” shall be substituted;

(ii) after sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), but subject to the provisions of sections 8 and 13, every employer shall be bound to pay to every employee in respect of the accounting year commencing on any day in the year 1971 a minimum bonus which shall be eight and one-third per cent of the salary or wage earned by the employee during that accounting year or eighty rupees, whichever is higher, whether there are profits in that accounting year or not:

Provided that where such employee has not completed fifteen years of age at the beginning of that accounting year, the provisions of this sub-section shall have effect in relation to such employee as if for the words “eighty rupees”, the words “fifty rupees” were substituted.

4. Amendment of section 13.—To section 13 of the principal Act, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

‘Provided that in respect of the accounting year commencing on any day in the year 1971, the provisions of this section shall have effect as if for the words “forty rupees”, “twenty-five rupees” and “four per cent”, the words “eighty rupees”, “fifty rupees” and “eight and one-third per cent” respectively were substituted.’

5. Amendment of section 19.—Section 19 of the principal Act shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) thereof, and

(i) in sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, for the words “All Amounts”, the words “subject to the provisions of this section, all amounts” shall be substituted;

(ii) after sub-section (1) as so re-numbered the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

(2) Where the amount paid or payable to an employee by way of bonus under this Act (including section 34) in respect of the accounting year immediately preceding the accounting year commencing on any day in the year 1971 is less than the amount payable to such employee under sub-section (2) of section 10 and the amount payable to such employee by way of bonus under this Act in respect of the accounting year commencing on any day in the year 1971 is more than the amount payable to such employee under the said sub-section (2), then, in respect of the accounting year commencing on any day in the year 1971, so much of the amount as is payable to him under that sub-section shall be paid in cash and the balance shall be remitted by the employer to the authority maintaining the provident fund account of such employee for crediting the same in that account and such payment and remittance shall be made within the time-limit specified in sub-section (1).

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (2), where the amount payable to an employee by way of bonus under this Act (including section 34) in respect of the accounting year commencing on any day in the year 1971 is in excess of amount paid or payable to such employee by way of bonus under this Act in respect of the accounting year immediately preceding, the excess shall be remitted by the employer to the authority maintaining the provident fund account of such employee for crediting the same in the account and the balance shall be paid in cash and such remittance and payment shall be made within the time-limit specified in sub-section (1).

(4) Where any employee has no provident fund account, the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) shall not apply to such employee and the amount payable to him by way of bonus under this Act (including section 34) shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1).

(5) Where any employer remits any amount for crediting in the provident fund account of an employee under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3),—

(i) the employer shall be deemed to have discharge his liability to pay the balance amount of bonus to such employee;

(ii) the amount so remitted shall be deemed to be a contribution made by such employee in his provident fund account.

Explanation.—For the purposes of sub-section (2), (3), (4) and (5), the expression “provident fund amount”, in relation to an employee, means the individual provident fund account of such employee maintained under the Coal Mines Provident Fund, Family Pension and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948 (46 of 1948), and the schemes framed thereunder or the employees’ Provident Funds and Family Pension Fund Act, 1952 (19 of 1952), and the schemes framed thereunder or under any other law for the time being in force or maintained by such authority as may be specified by the Central Government in this behalf by notification in the Official Gazette, as the case may be.

(6) The provisions of the Coal Mines Provident Fund, Family Pension and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948 (46 of 1948), and the Employees’ Provident Funds and Family Pension Fund Act, 1952 (19 of 1952), shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to the remittances to be made by an employer under sub-sections (2) and (3) as they apply in relation to the contributions to be made by such employer under the aforesaid Acts.
